We got you

Giuly's Studio is a sustainable brand focusing on quality over mass production. We design our clothes to last longer because you deserve more than just a fling with garments that last ten washes. We're designing our clothes for the long haul, so get ready to commit and save long-term.

About the brand

Giuly's Studio presents itself as a reference point for fashion targeting this increasingly demanding public and, in just 2 years, we have consolidated our brand image in 3 shops around Wales. We have been able to provide sustainable fashion in Cardiff, Bristol and Newport and look forward to opening our new store this summer in London, targeting a new market. We take great pride in offering high-quality and eco-friendly clothing options for our customers.
